

Pets and Me

Everyone assumes that I don't like animals but as a child I had a collie dog named Buster that went everywhere I went. He died when I was 13. I also had a pet goat and lots of farm kittens that I played with. After Buster we had a dog named Queen who had litters of the cutest puppies ever. So, it's not that I don't like animals it's just that I prefer them outside.
