

What is one of your favorite drinks?

It's really hard to make much of a story out of this simple question but I'm lazy this week.

I would say that my favorite drink would be a pina colada. It is made of rum, coconut, and pineapple juice. Wish I had one right now.

We went on a trip to Cancun and each afternoon a little outside bar had two for one pina coladas. It was a short walk from our hotel, and we would go there and relax. Also always had one when we went into Mexico from Texas.

I also like to drink Diet Coke when I'm truly thirsty. Not crazy about wine or mixed drinks and DON'T like beer of any kind.
