

What were you like when you were 30?

Does everyone realize that it has been almost thirty three years since I was thirty years old? At that age I had three small children. Rhonda was eight years old, Mike was six, and Scott was almost two. So I was busy just being a Mother. I didn't have a job outside of the home. We mostly did family things with our kids and our parents.

