

How did your parents pick your name?

I believe that Robert had to be the most popular name at the time I was born. I believe this because I have friends around my age named Robert.

Robert Litterer, Robert Kelm, Robert Voigts and Robert Jansen are all my friends now. I bowled on a team with Robert Schwarts, Robert Voigts and myself. In high school I had friends named Robert Matthias and Robert Harris. I went to Army reserve meeting with Robert Miller.

We went on a bus trip with Robert Voigts, Robert Kelm, Robert Jansen and Robert Litterer. This caused my brother-in-law to compose a song called "Five Bob's On A Bus". Yes, every one of these Roberts were called Bob.

I was named Robert William Herman Fenneman. The middle names were my grandfathers names.
