

What is your best relationship advice?

My best advice is to be calm, listen to both sides of an argument and never lose your temper.

Always treat people with kindness. Try not to judge others.

Don't gloat if your right. Well, maybe just a little bit.

In a marriage the saying "Don't go to bed angry" is good advice.

Talk things over and make decisions together.